Creating Your Narratives

Nine PBS St. Louis Regional Public Media

How to Put Together an Effective Narrative

The narrative component of your application defines your project's scope and purpose, and it explains how it will be executed.

Effective narratives are

- Succinct
- Organized
- Written in clear, direct language

Frizzy by Nature: Frizz Fest

What's in a Narrative?

An application narrative is the core of your application.

It typically covers:

- ❖ Purpose
- ❖ Significance or impact (why it is important)
- ❖ Program Description
- ❖ Timeline
- ❖ Projected Outcomes
- ❖ Budget / Budget Narrative

Prepare to Write

Think through all the details of your request

Clear details of items like:

- Specific audience
- Location(s) where your project will take place
- Potential challenges you may face

Begin by copying and pasting the application questions into a word document to ensure you don't lose anything you've created in the application portal.

This will be your first draft!

Write fast and furiously, getting the details down. No need to worry about word count at this point. Use the wording from the application question and the review criteria.

Once you respond to all 9 of the application questions

- Go over what you've written: Are you happy with it?
- Do a word count
- Revise, edit, etc.

In your next draft...

Make sure you've responded to the question and the review criteria

Cut out "the fat"

Don't go overboard on abbreviations

Write for a general audience

Check to see that you've addressed WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, and WHY

- ❖ Who is implementing the project?
- ❖ What activities does the project consist of?
- ❖ When will the project take place? What are milestones in the project timeline?
- ❖ Where will the project take place?
- ❖ Why is the project relevant? Why are you the right person to do the project?

Consider how you will assess your organization's success

Performance Measures Define the Success of the Project / Program / Need

- ∅ Goals
- ∅ Objectives
- ∅ Outcomes

GOALS

A goal is:

- ∅ A broad statement
- ∅ A summary of the “big picture”
- ∅ Future-focused, perhaps long-term
- ∅ Intangible, difficult to measure

This Photo by Unknown Author is licensed under CC BY-SA

OBJECTIVES (SMART—Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic, Timely)

An objective is:

- ∅ A narrow statement
- ∅ A precise description of end products
- ∅ Clear and concrete
- ∅ Tangible and measurable

OUTCOMES

An outcome is:

- A statement of humanistic benefit, change, or effect
- Measurable
- A valuable tool for answering the “So what?” question
- A way to highlight long-term impact and value

Review!

Are you happy with your narrative?

Find a trusted colleague or friend to read what you've written

- Ask the reader what questions they may have about your project after reading what you've written. It may help you clarify what you need in your narrative.
- Incorporate revisions
- Spellcheck!

You are ready to submit!

Ensure all elements of your application help tell the same story—from narrative sections through document uploads and budget.

Aim to submit at least one day prior to the deadline.

RAC will not accept any late submissions.
